

CODE OF STUDENT CONDUCT AGREEMENT

Gutenberg College has adopted a Code of Student Conduct, which is included in the Gutenberg College Ethics Statement. Before matriculating, all students must indicate their agreement to the Code of Student Conduct by signing the Code of Student Conduct Agreement.

Code of Student Conduct

To be a Gutenberg College student is to avail oneself of a unique educational opportunity. To benefit fully from the program, students must work hard and be cooperative members of the Gutenberg community. Therefore, every student must agree to be respectful of other students, residents, faculty, and staff, cognizant of the fact that in a small community the actions of one affect everyone else. Please read the Student Code of conduct below and decide whether you can agree to abide by it.

Our rights, privileges, restrictions, and freedoms are derived from our relationship to the community in which we live. Freedom properly exercised is expanded. When it is improperly exercised, it is reduced. Discipline is the community's process of responding to the abuse of rights, privileges, and freedoms. It includes helping the offender understand the way his action is not acceptable in the community and how his place in the community can be restored through mature acceptance of responsibility. Discipline is fundamental to education, a major purpose of which is to help people make a reasoned use of freedom and thereby acquire more.

Loss of privilege, restitution, suspension, or expulsion may be imposed on any student whose conduct on or off the campus disturbs the peace or diminishes the reputation of the college community. The kinds of misconduct that will bring discipline are as follows:

- (1) Conviction for violation of any federal, state, or local laws;
- (2) Dishonesty, such as giving false information, alteration or misuse of documents, plagiarism, cheating in schoolwork, impersonation, and other forms of fraud;
- (3) Theft, misuse, unauthorized use, or unauthorized entry of college or public property;
- (4) Illegal use, sale, or possession of stimulants, intoxicants, drugs, or tobacco products and vapes;
- (5) Use of marijuana in any capacity (even though legal in Oregon);
- (6) Storing or consuming alcohol on campus (except for administratively sanctioned events), providing minors with alcohol, consuming alcohol if under the legal-drinking age;
- (7) Willful failure to comply with the authorized directions of any college official, staff member, or tutor acting in the performance of his duties;
- (8) Obstructing or forcibly disrupting college activities;
- (9) Abuse, intimidation, or harassment of another person by physical force or threat of physical force;
- (10) Deliberate or careless endangerment to another person, such as the following: tampering with safety equipment, violation of safety regulations, and use of firearms, knives, explosives, or other weapons on campus.
- (11) Receipt or transmission of any material in violation of any state or federal law, including the receipt or transmission of any unauthorized copyrighted material or any threatening or obscene material via the Internet or any other means.

I agree to abide by the Gutenberg College Code of Student Conduct.
